SENIORS GO OUT WITH CLASS

"Class" was the most apt word to describe the seniors of 1979, as they compiled an unforgettable record at Lowell.

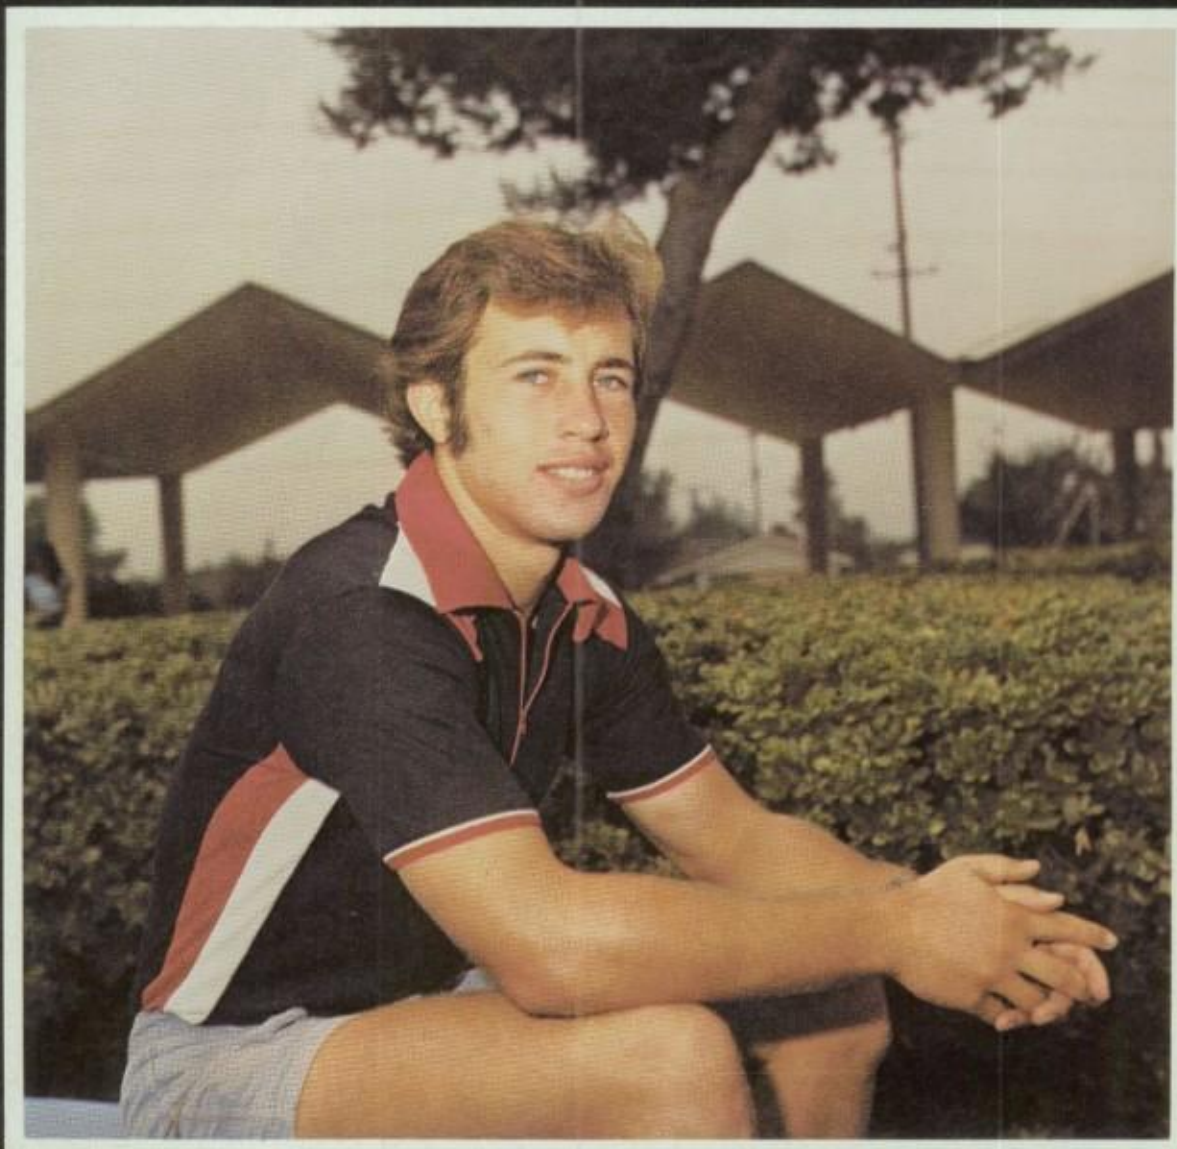

Freshman class president Gloria Guterrez began their first year by sponsoring many fund raisers and being in charge of the Top 100 Banquet.

Kelly Starbuck, carried on Gloria's work by contributing various good ideas to improve student government in their Sophomore year.

With the help of the other junior class officers, last year's president John Roberts organized a very successful Junior-Senior Prom held at the Ambassador Hotel.

Lance Geiger, senior class president, had his hands full with planning the Grad Nite held in Palm Springs on Mt. San Jacinto. Lance and his cabinet sponsored a car wash and several other activities to raise money for this main event.

As the senior gift, the Class of 1979 helped the annual staff pay for the entire Senior Section printed in full color.

GIRLS' LEAGUE WHIPS APATHY

Sponsoring the Big and Little Sister Tea was the opening event of Girls' League Activities for this year. The purpose of this well attended event was to welcome the freshmen girls to Lowell.

The fall fund raiser was the selling of Carmel Corn, a first for Girls' League, replacing the traditional Candy Apple sale.

Christmas found Girls' League promoting Sees' Candy Canes to add holiday cheer to the campus.

After the New Year, two members of Girls' League, Cathy Al-lor and Karen Zisko, undertook the task of selling and delivering carnations.

Exotic Lion Country Safari was the site selected for this year's Girls' League Dance held on February 17, with the theme of "An Evening in Paradise."

Dad Date Night gave fathers and daughters a chance to have an evening out together including dinner and planned activities.

June brought the closing of each board member's term, and elections were held to select new officers for the upcoming year of 1979-'80.

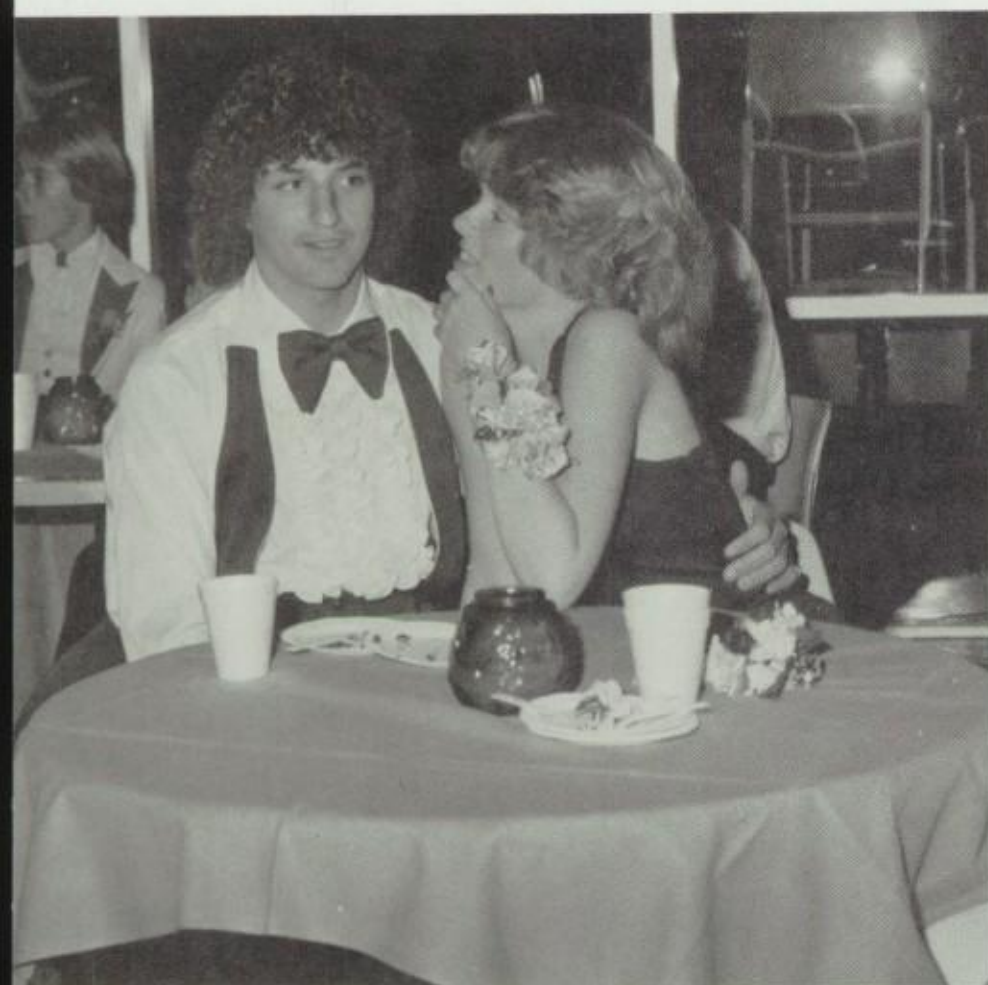

EXOTIC SAFARI MOTIF SETS MOOD FOR GIRLS' LEAGUE DANCE

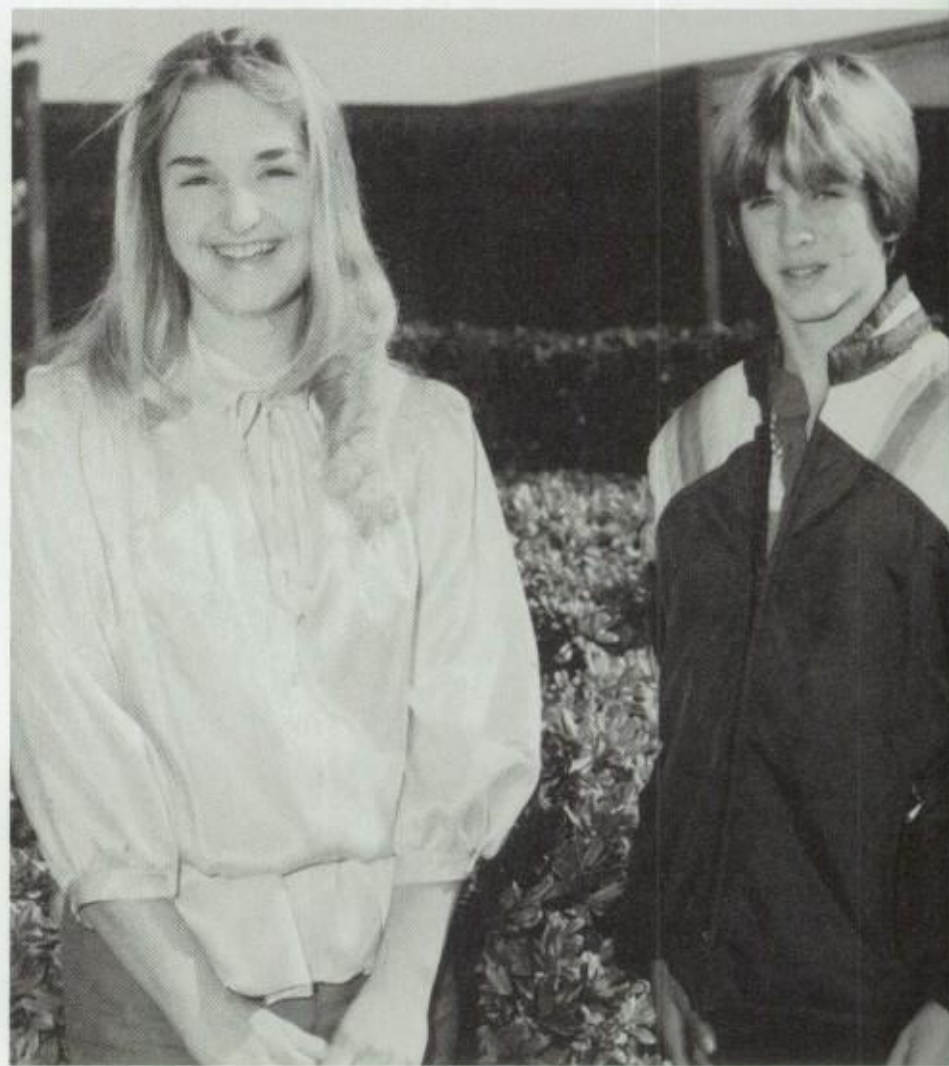

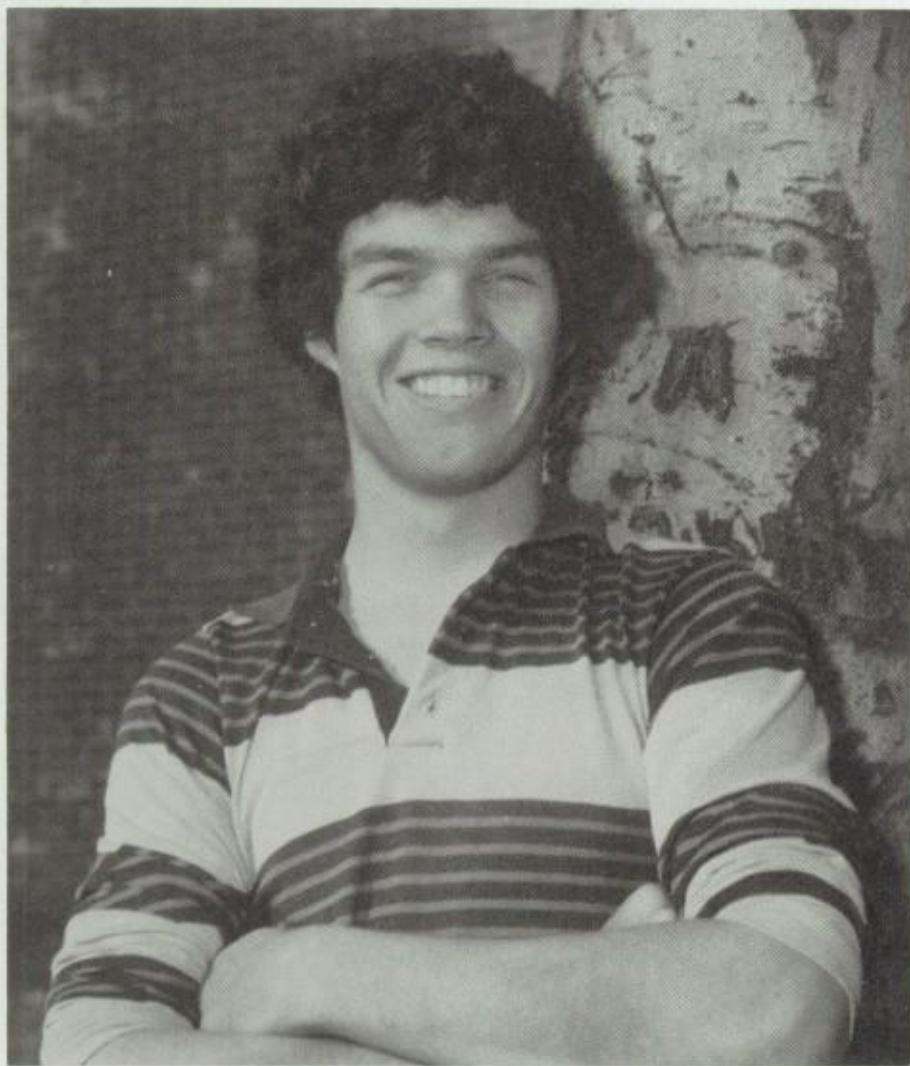

Exotic Lion Country Safari was the chosen site for this year's Girls' League Dance, held on February 17 with the theme, "An Evening in Paradise." The setting was a beautiful and romantic one, with paths and walkways intertwining among ponds and lakes outside of the main ballroom. "Ace" was the band playing for the occasion enchanting couples for over three hours with their music.

The Girl's League Dance is the main event of the year for the girls on the board, and a major portion of the first part of the year was spent planning and organizing it.

Many fund raisers and activities were scheduled to raise money for the dance. The Major ones were the carmel corn, candy cane, and carnation sales that brought in the necessary funds needed to sponsor the dance.

YEARBOOK EARNS NATIONAL AWARD

Facing the problems of summer school cancellation due to Proposition 13, a reduced staff, and rising costs of production, the Minuteman Staff, nevertheless, began the 1978-79 year with ambitious goals.

A major decision was to print the entire senior section in full color; this was a first for Lowell High school. The innovative theme chosen was "Patriot Fever" which lent itself to contemporary layouts and colorful treatment throughout the book. The seventeen staff members worked under the direction of Fay Sunada to produce a quality yearbook.

In recognition of the staff's ideas, Herff Jones honored the Minuteman with "Cover of the Month" award. A wall plaque was presented to the school in the spring.

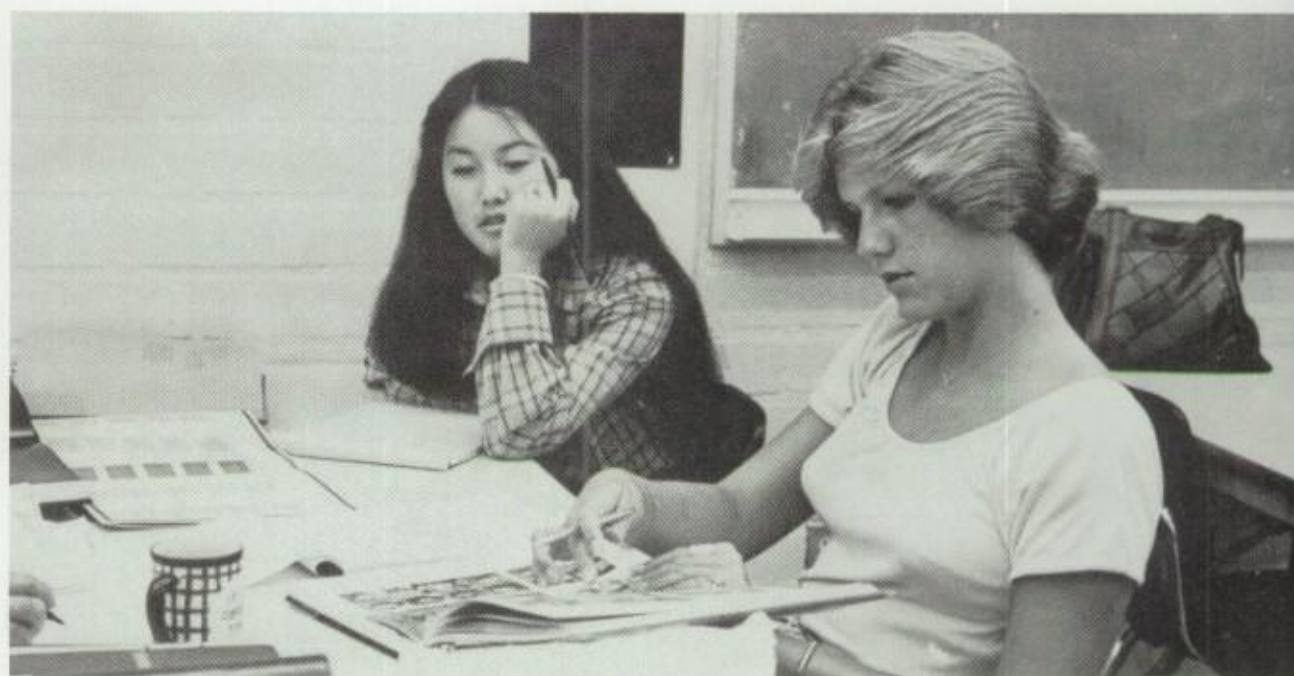

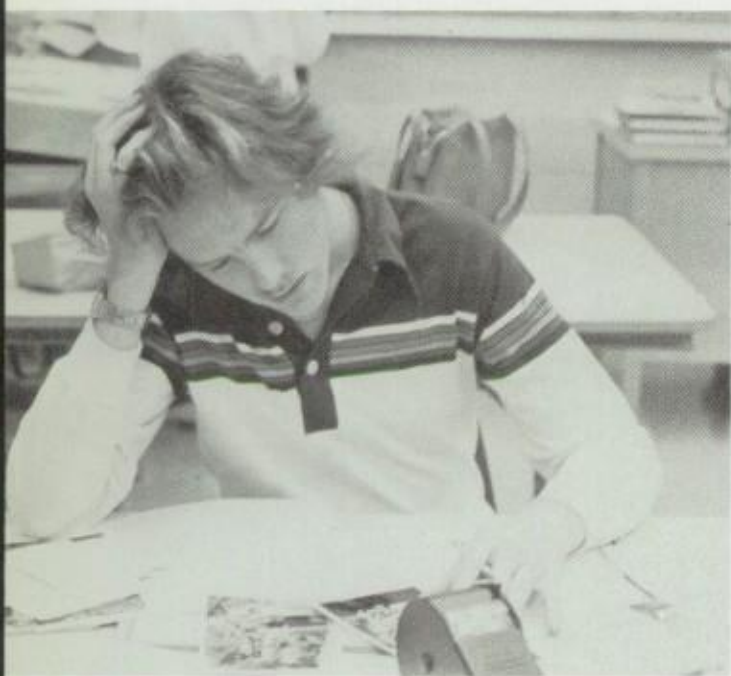

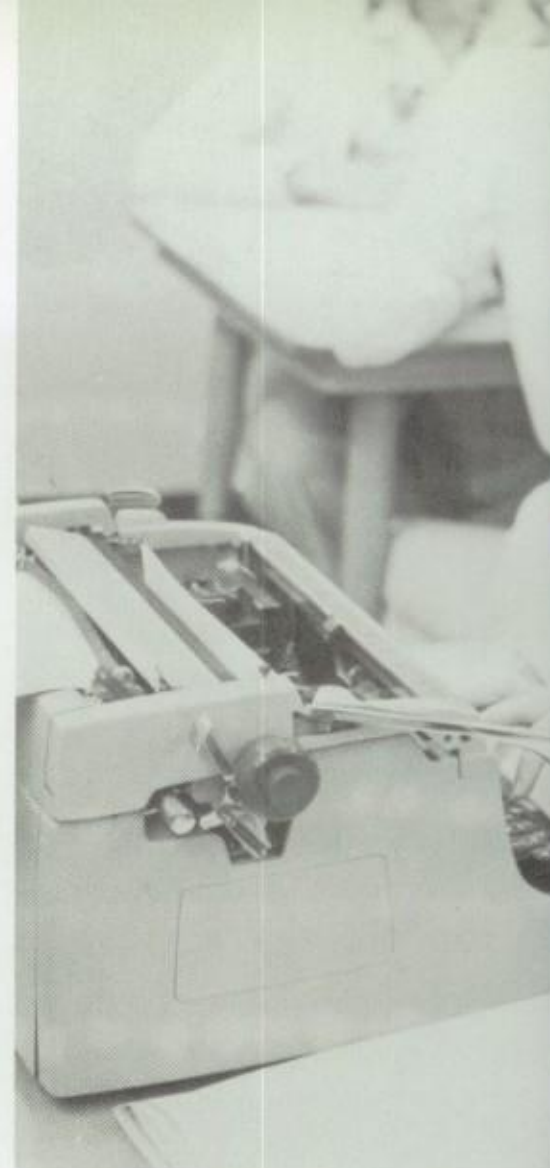

By working together as a team, the staff was able to produce a record of the school year that was a source of pride to Lowell students.

DANCERS EXPRESS EMOTIONS

The students in the advanced dance classes presented two performances this year. The first, a Mini Winter Concert, was presented for two nights in January; and the main concert ran for two weekends in May, with the theme "Beyond These Castle Walls."

The students showed their talents in a variety of numbers including jazz, ballet, and modern dance. There were very colorful and original costumes, and the students did their own choreography. Mr. Bucalstein did an excellent job directing the concert. All these factors joined together in making the concert a big success.

PATRIOTS' AIM STIFLED

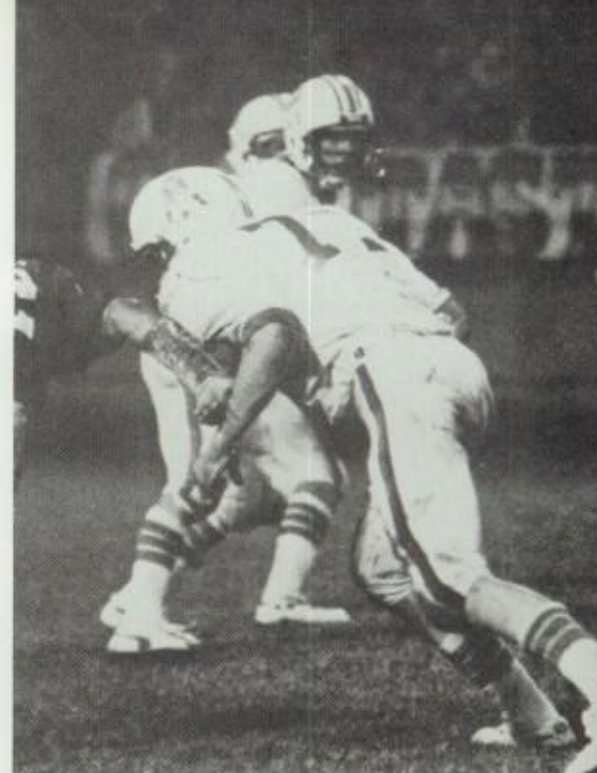

Injuries to two different quarterbacks on the Varsity Football team and a change from the Freeway League to the more competitive Orange League combined to make the season a tough one.

Back to back losses to La Serna and Cal High sent the Patriots into league play with a 0-2 record. The outlook for the season did not improve as Esperanza shut out the varsity 21-0 and Sonora edged the Pats 19-14.

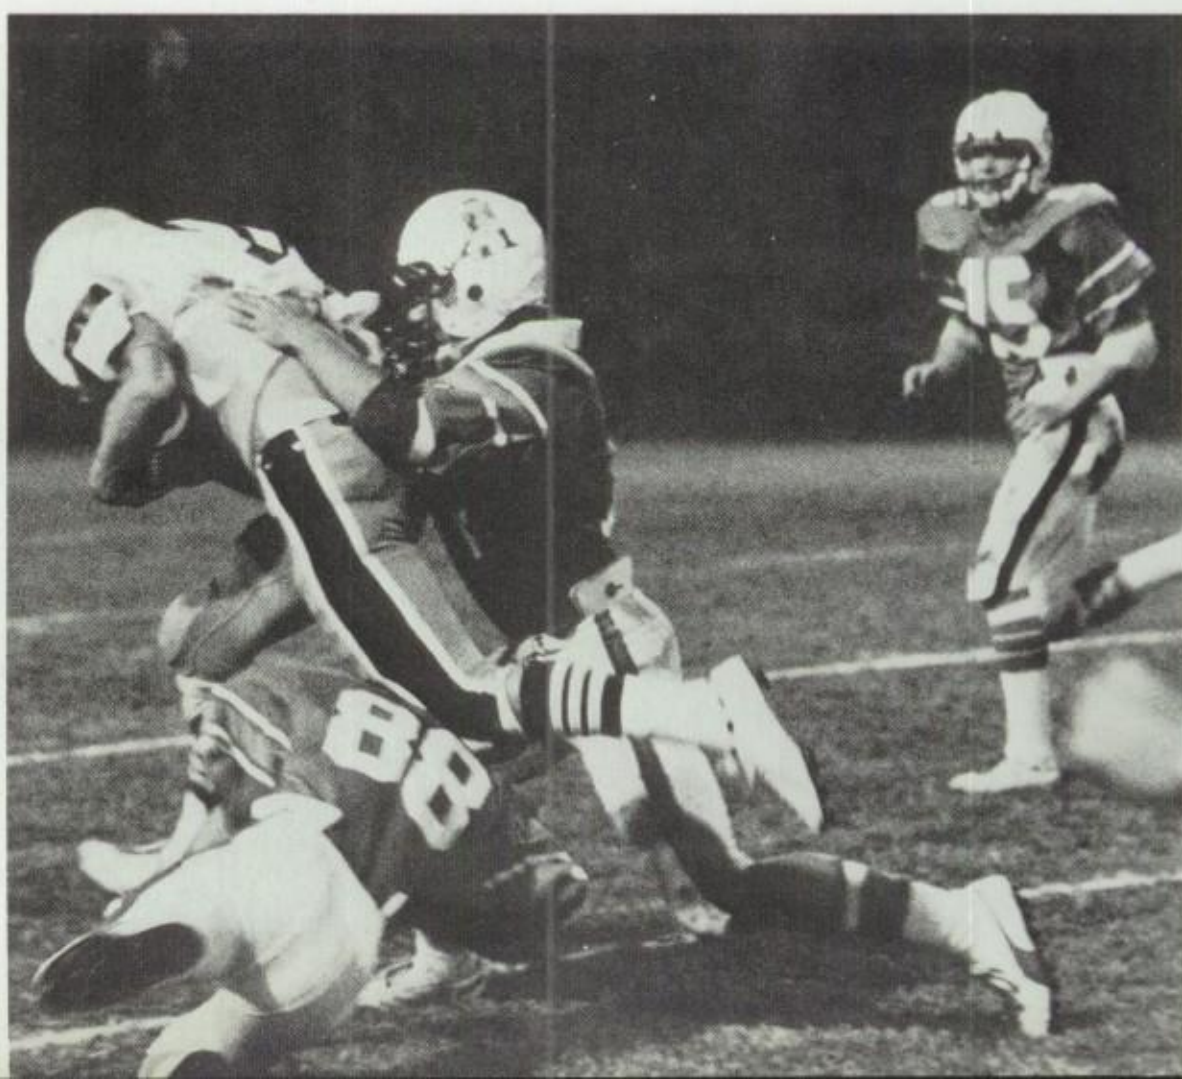

A 14-7 upset over crosstown rival La Habra helped to raise the Pats' spirits. Another three losses in a row shot Lowell's hopes of a winning record.

The pats never gave up hope and ended the season on a winning note by beating Valencia 24-7.

Despite the overall appearance of the season record, the varsity played well and narrowly missed wins over Sonora, Brea, and La Serna.

SOPHS SCORE HIGH

An outstanding overall record showed the success of the Sophomore Football team in the fall season. The sophomores managed to accumulate a record of 4-2-1 in league and 5-3-1 overall.

The biggest victory of the season was a 55-0 win over Cal Hi.

During the season, the Pats managed to outscore their opponents 191 points to 97 points.

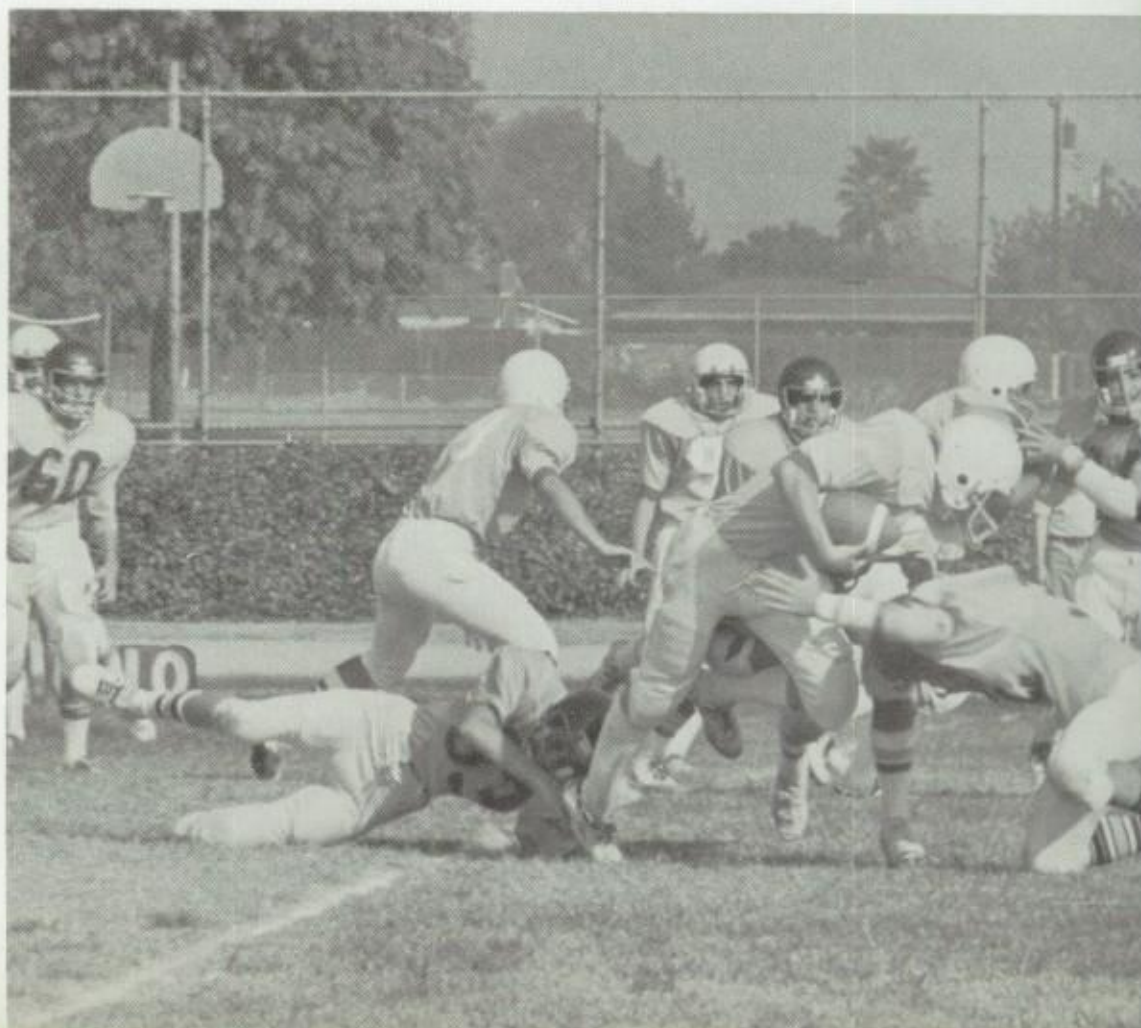

Coach Jim Sutton worked with the Sophomore team this season to post their fine showing.

Finishing with a league record of 4-2-1, the Freshmen team supplied tough competition for other teams in their league during the football season this year.

Changing from the Freeway League of last year to the tougher Orange League this year didn't seem to phase them one bit as they handily disposed of their opponents many times.

WINNING SEASON ELUDES FROSH-SOPH

Winning didn't seem to be one of the strong points for the Frosh-Soph Water Polo team during the 1978 season as they ended with a 1-6 league record and a 2-8 season record.

The team's one win in league came in their third game of the season at the expense of cross-town rival La Habra, in a 9-5 victory. After that game their luck seemed to take a turn for the worse as they lost their next four games.

The Varsity Wrestling team encountered tough competition this year and ended the season with a 0-9 record. Going into the matches, Lowell already had to forfeit several points because of lack of players.

Highlighting the season was the league finals where John Guy captured first place by beating a previously undefeated Brea-Olinda wrestler and was honored as the Co-M.V.P. of the tournament. Marty Kudler won 3rd place at the finals and just missed qualifying for C.I.F.

Steve Clark coached the team this season with the assistance of Marty Carillo.

With mainly freshmen on the Frosh-Soph Wrestling team, the matmen were unable to put together a winning season and ended with a disappointing 3-6 record.

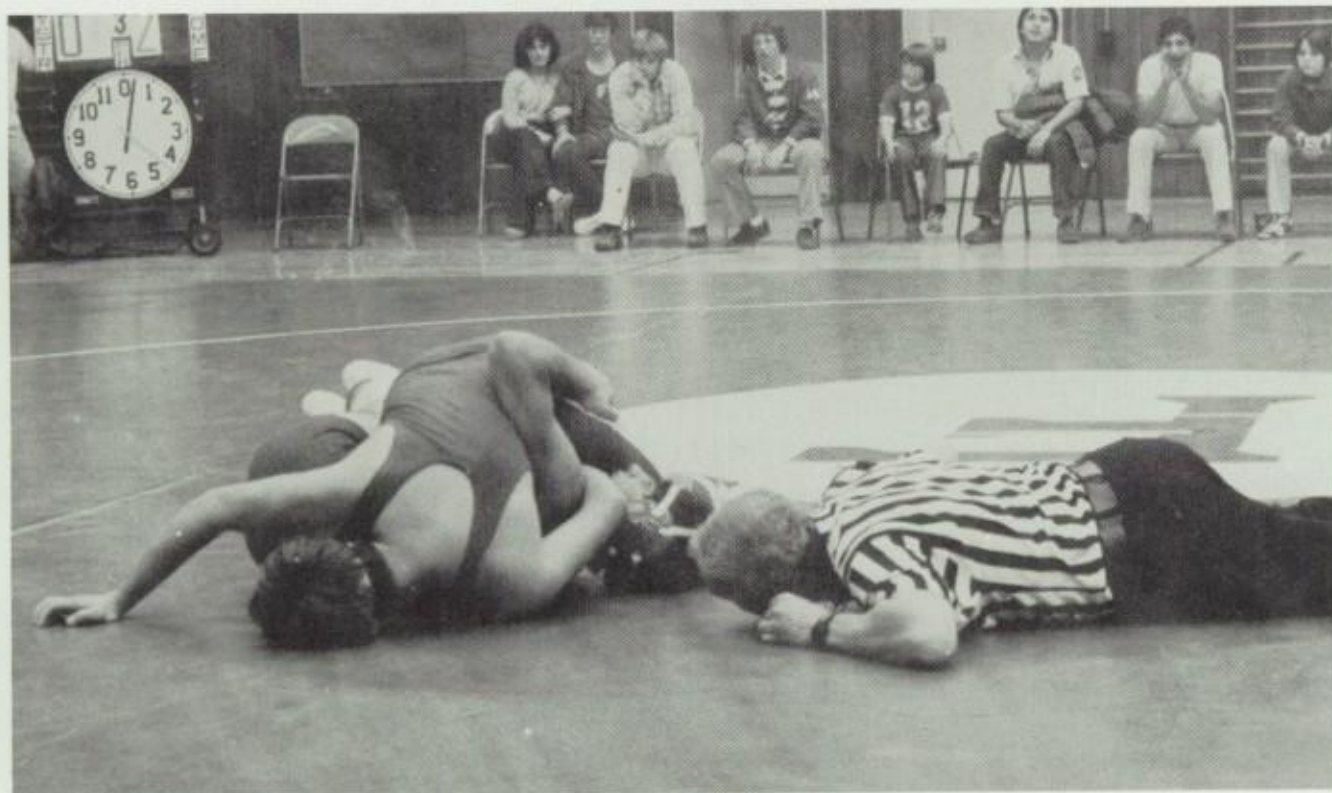

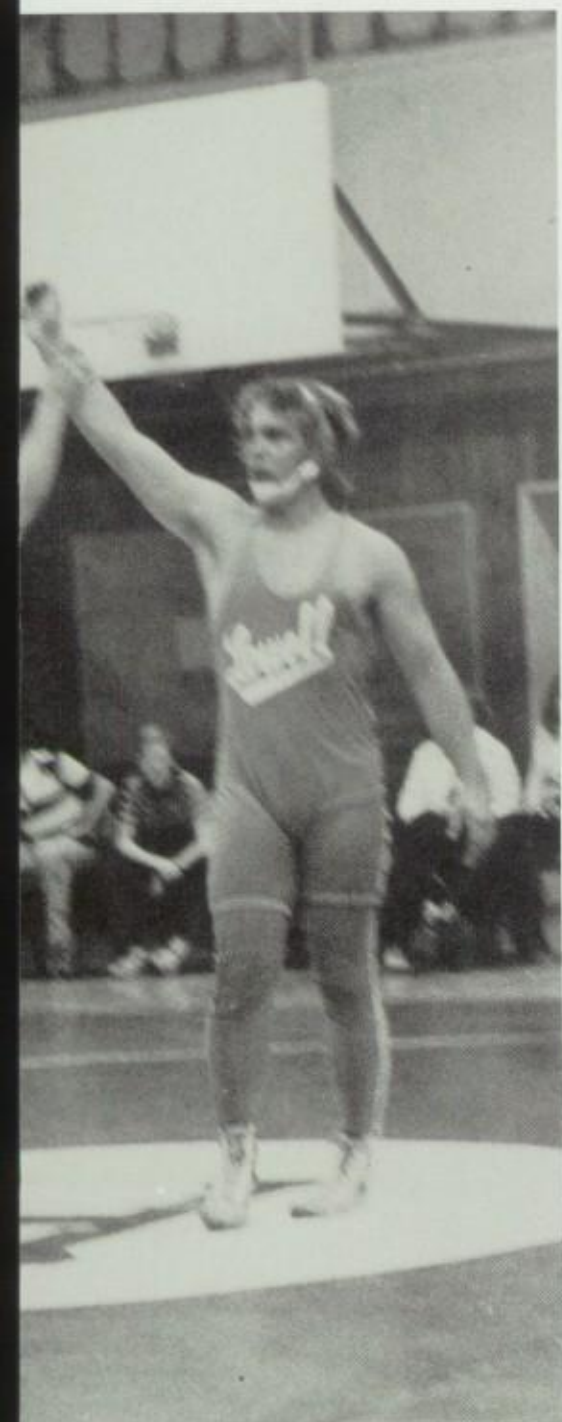

The Pats' three victories this year came in a 45-24 match over El Dorado, 24-18 over Fullerton and 27-16 over Sonora.

A few of the freshmen wrestlers were promoted to Varsity later in the season to gain experience for future years.

CAGERS ADVANCE IN CIF PLAY

"Defense Wins" seemed an appropriate motto for the 1978-1979 Orange League Champion Varsity Basketball team as they set a number of records as well as having the second best defensive team in Lowell's history, allowing a scant 49.5 points per game.

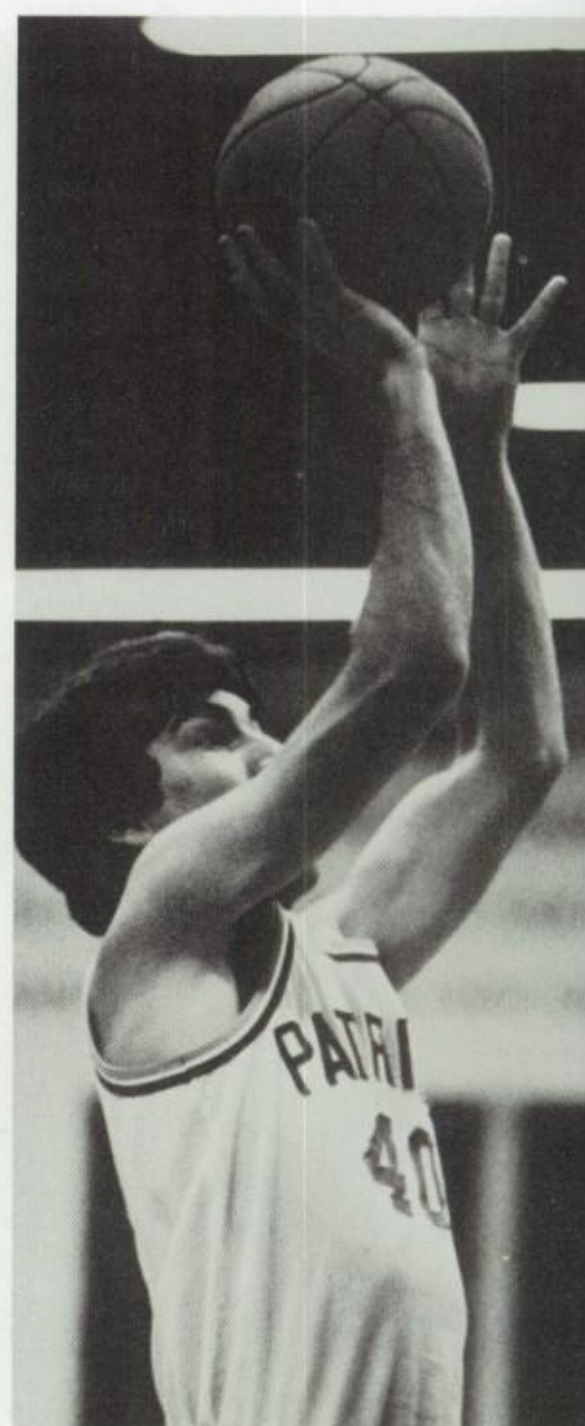

Advancing to the Quarterfinals of the CIF Playoffs highlighted an already outstanding season. Two wins in CIF gave the Patriots the recognition of being the only team to ever do this in school history in any sport. Only a two point loss to Sunny Hills kept them from going to the semifinals.

Gary Heil, a four year Varsity starter, capped a fine career at Lowell by breaking eight school records this season to add to his one from last year. Heil was recognized as the Orange County Most Valuable Player, Orange League MVP, and was selected for the All-CIF team. Another individual standout was Ross Alger who was selected to the first team All-League. Steve Doane and Tom Forgette were both honorable mentions for the All-League team.

Bringing further distinction to the team were the many honors earned by Coach Barry Gottula in his sixth year as head basketball coach.

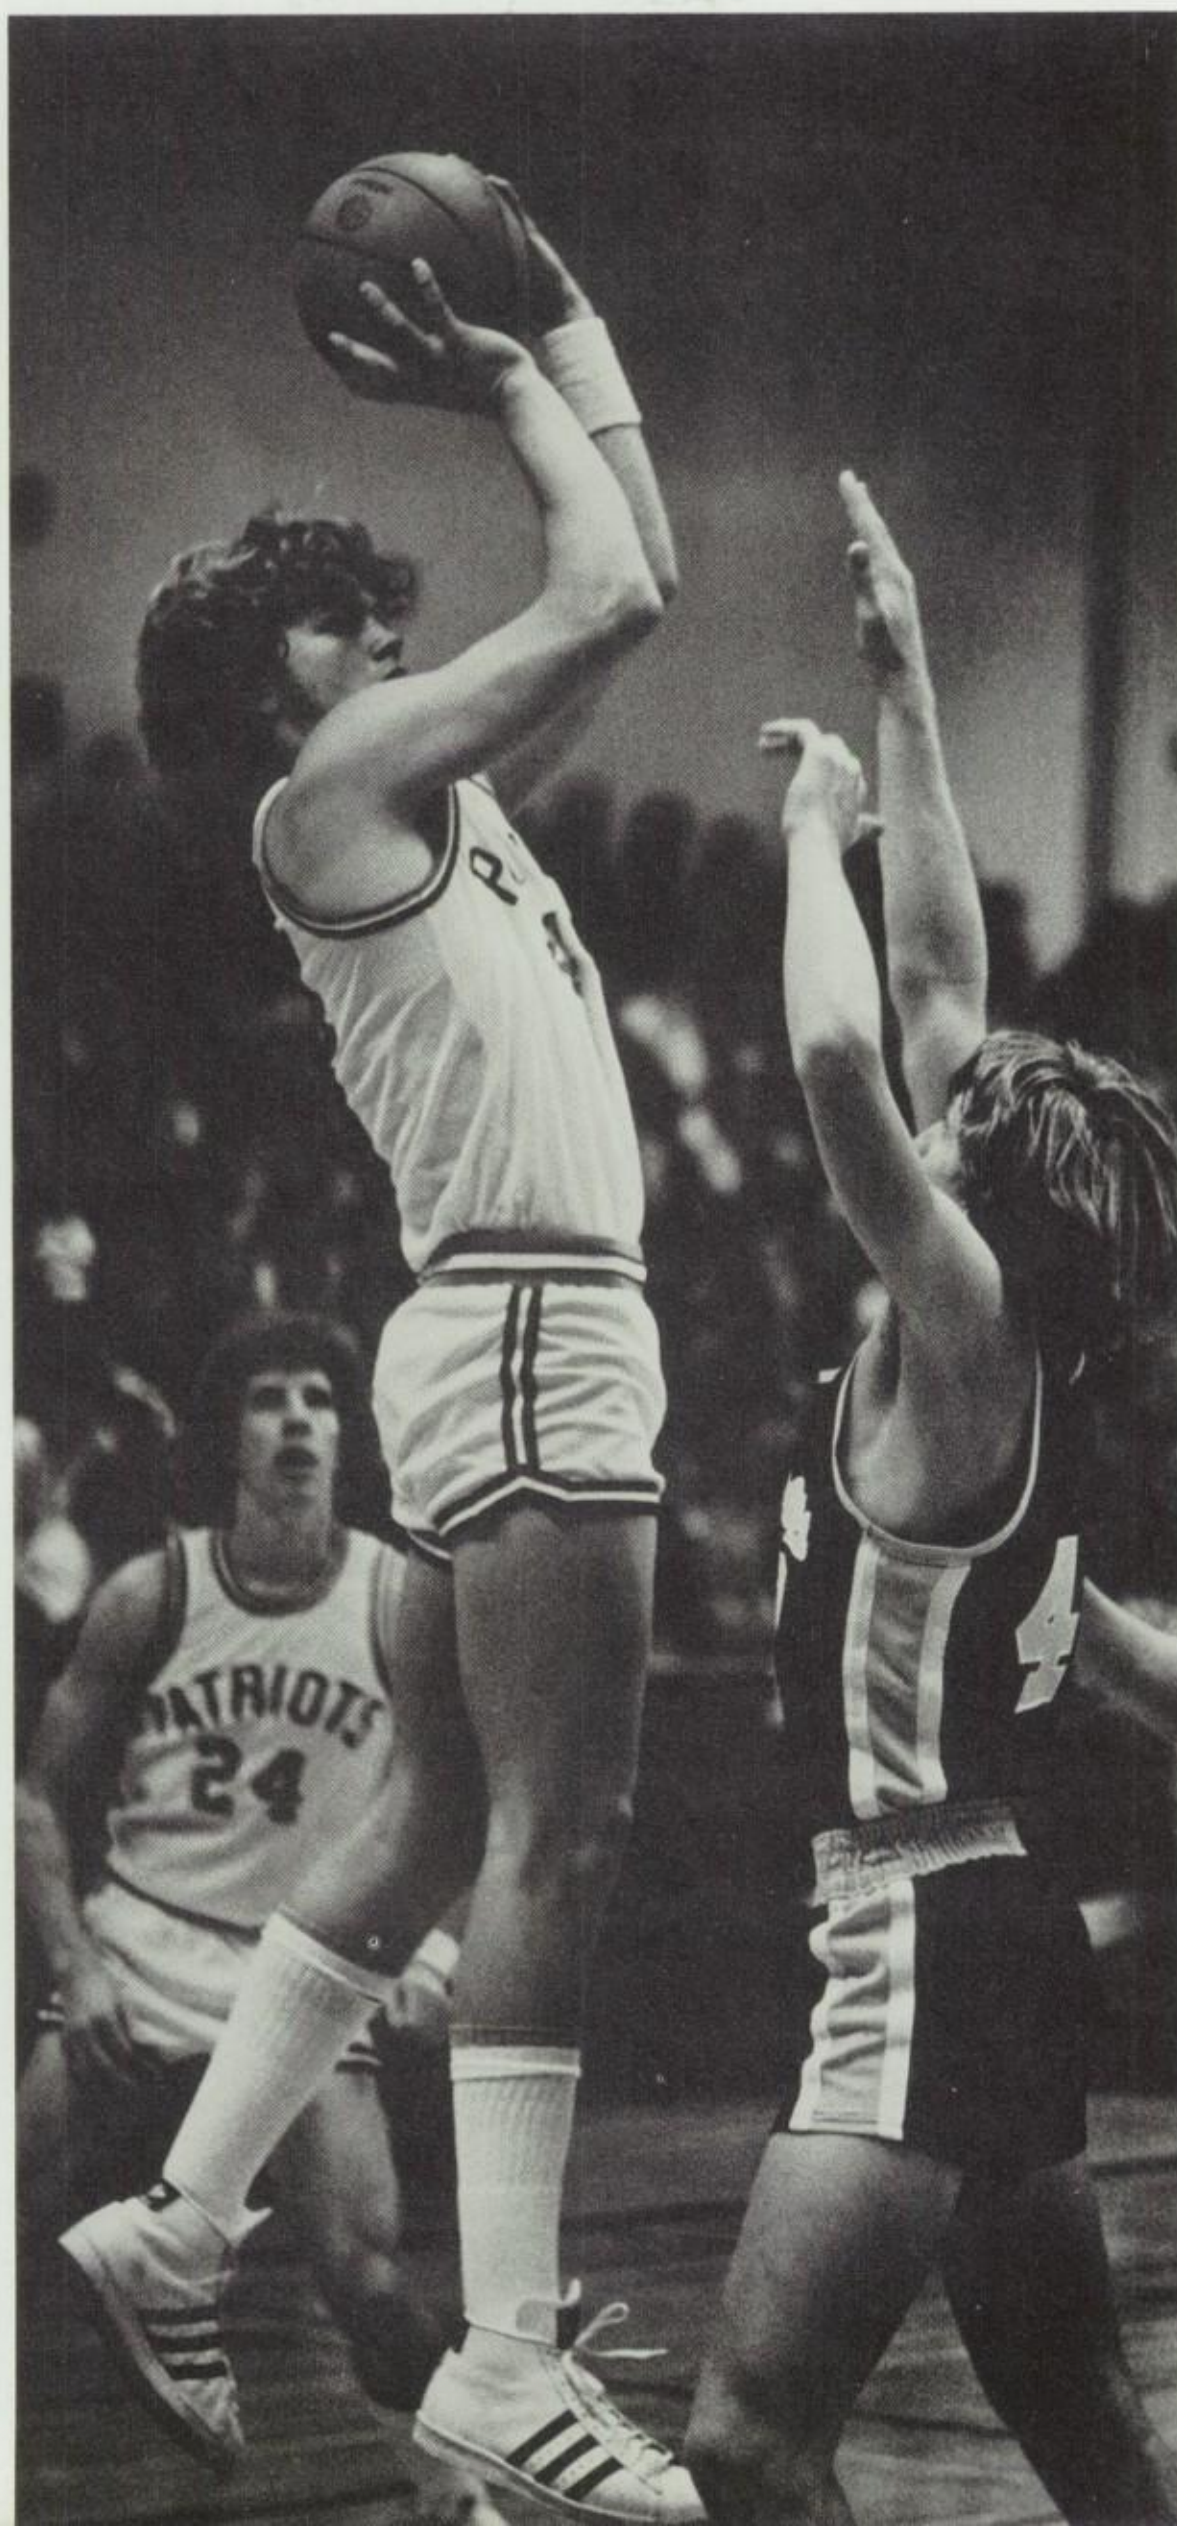

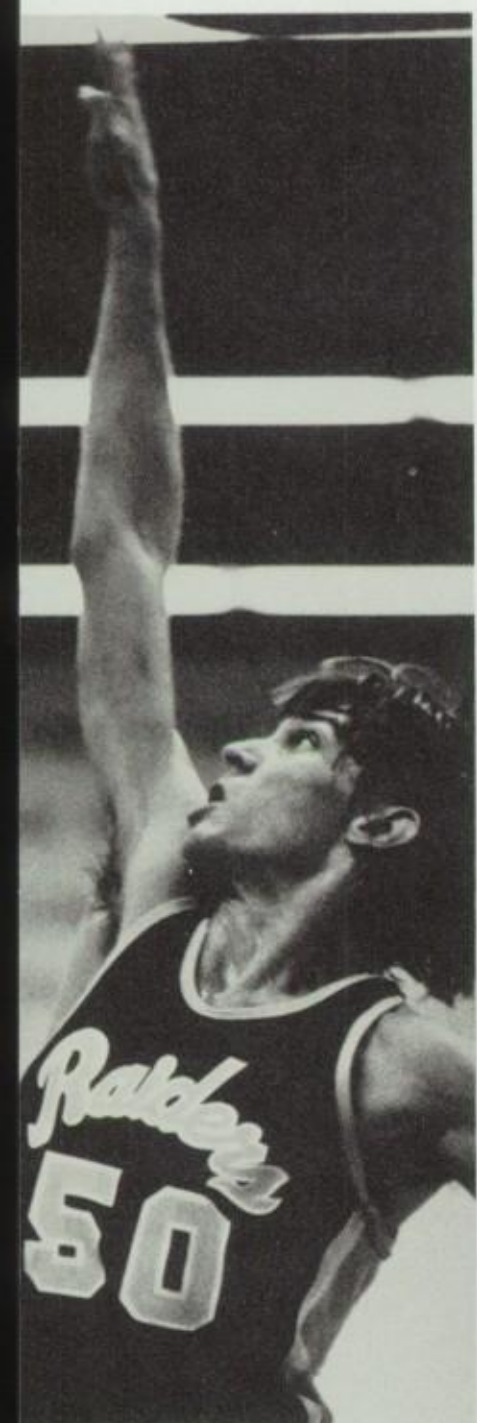

A 20-5 overall record and an 11-3 record in league was an accomplishment that could not have been achieved without the effort of the entire team.

SOPHS CAPTURE TOURNNEY TITLE

Just missing first place in league this season was the only low point for the 1978-1979 Soph. basketball team. The Sophs posted a 19-4 overall record and a 12-2 league record losing only to the league champs, Brea.

A first place spot in the Sunny Hills tournament highlighted the season. C.J. Sciacca, the only freshman on the team, was awarded the honor of MVP for the tournament.

COACHES ENCOURAGE ATHLETES

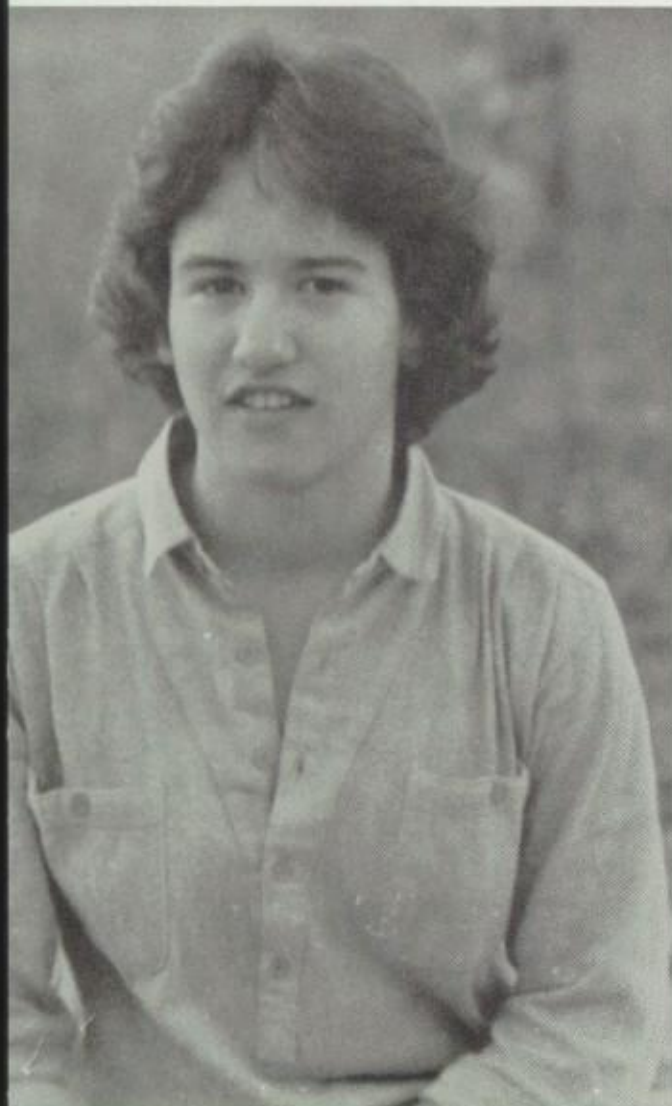

GAA coaches played a vital role in this year's sports program. With the new and more competitive league the teams were in, the coaches discovered they needed to train the athletes even harder. They had to perfect the skills of their teams to surpass those of the other teams. This achievement came through long hours of working with and encouraging each individual on the playing field. There were times of discouragement, but the times of success overpowered them.

A special type of skill was needed by each coach. That skill was knowing how to cope with the demands of all the athletes, and at the same time handling each team with ease.

BOARD IMPROVES GAA

The GAA Board of 1978/79 started the year early with the planning of many activities. The four board members: Patrice Podhayny, Marcia Stevenson, Brenda Milburn, Julie Vaughn and their new advisor, Janet Greene, held weekly meetings to discuss important issues concerning GAA. The girls were elected by ballot last year for their position on the board this year.

For the first time, the board bought girl's letterman jackets for themselves and made them available to GAA members. Their fund raiser, a mini-marathon, turned out to be a great success. The race was open to anyone who wanted to be challenged with the six mile run. The money earned was used toward the annual Sadie Hawkins Dance and two award banquets.

SPIKERS SHOW POWER

All three volleyball teams had a powerful season as they placed near the top in their league.

Varsity Volleyball, coached by Jo Waldman, completed their season with a 7-7 record. This record was good enough for a third place finish in the Orange League.

Young players comprised the Varsity team as all returning players were sophomores and juniors. Age, however, did not hamper the team's ability. They went on to place a very high fifth place in the Savanna Tournament after competing against over fifteen teams.

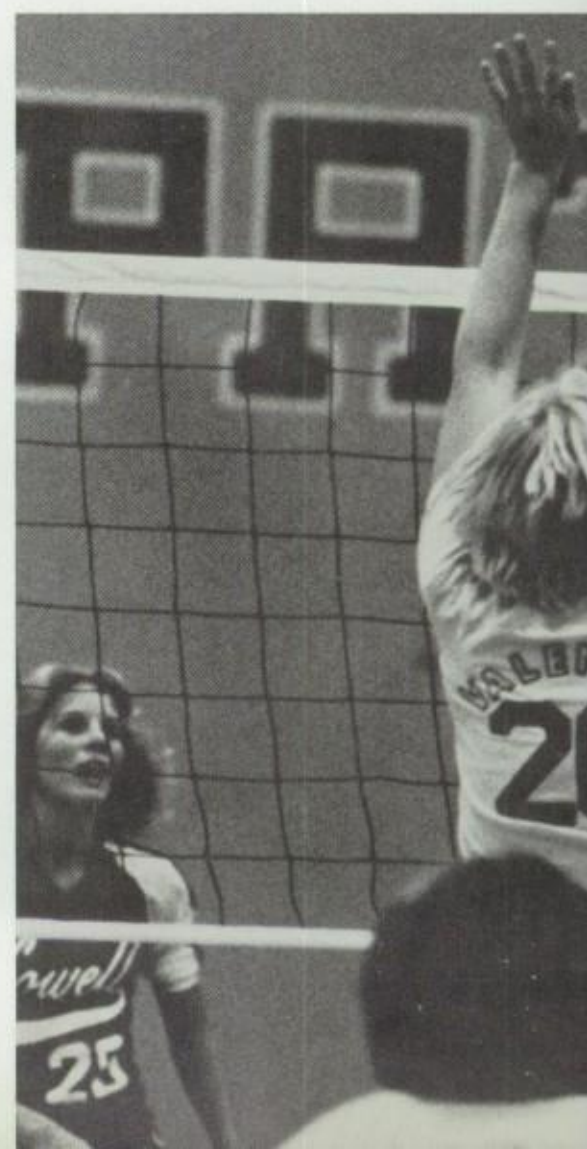

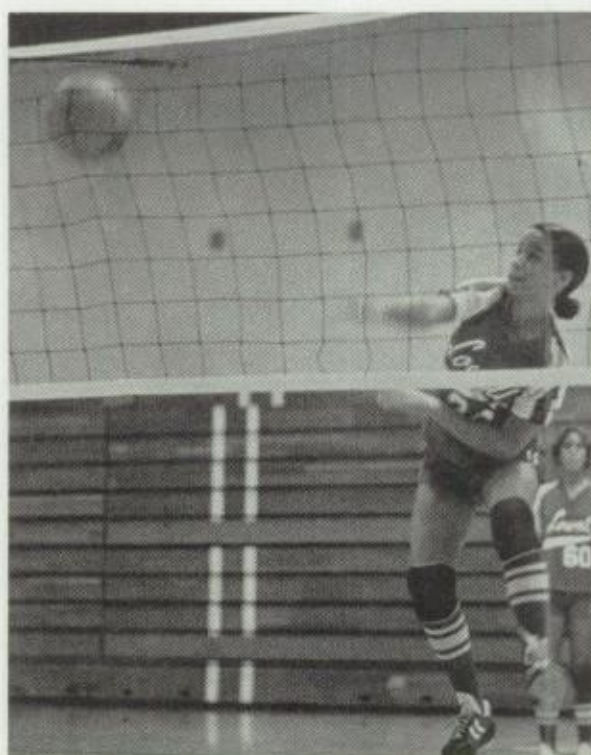

One outstanding player, Julie Vaughn, was selected to the All-Orange League second team.

With a record of 9-5, the J.V. Volleyball team placed third in the league. The J.V. team consisted of all underclassmen and only two juniors.

Small but strong was the Bee team. They were the dominant team in the league as they finished with an exceptional first. The Bee's were undefeated in their five games played.

TENNIS MOVES TO CIF

Varsity Tennis had an impressive season finishing second in the Orange League with an 11-3 record.

For the first time at Lowell, the entire tennis team advanced to CIF playoffs. Doubles team Lori Duca and Lisa Evans led the Varsity at CIF, winning two of their three matches.

A few outstanding players who reinforced the team were Paula Dolberg, Suzanne Elliott and Danelle Hottle. Suzanne's and Danelle's skill enabled them to achieve the Patriot of the Month award.

J.V. Tennis also had an awarding season. They tied for third with an excellent record of 6-8.

Maya Blackman and Tawna Trueman boosted the J.V.'s with their fine tennis ability.

Coach Wilson commented about the team, "They all improved so much, and I know they'll be shooting for number one next year."

RUNNERS BATTLE TOUGH RIVALS

Facing tougher competition than last year, the Girls Cross Country team finished seventh in the league, beating three of the eight teams they ran against.

September 1 brought ten girls out for the team. After a few weeks five of the girls had leg injuries. This hindered the team as they had to compete against teams of fifteen.

Three invitationals were scheduled for the season. The Cal High Invitational was early in the year. Only three girls were able to run at the Orange County Championships. Since five runners are needed to complete a team, the girls, Brenda Milburn, Laura Rodriguez, and Lesley White represented Lowell as individuals. Mt. Sac was the biggest race with 150 entries. Lesley White ran a remarkable first, and the team placed in the top ten.

At league finals, Lesley qualified for CIF prelims. She placed fourth and was allowed to run at CIF finals. At finals, Lesley finished sixth.

GIRLS' BASKETBALL FALLS SHORT OF GOAL

This year's Varsity Basketball Team came up short on wins with a sixth place league finishing. Their overall record of 7-13 was discouraging. With only three of those wins counting for the league record, their standings dwindled downward.

Although height was a major disadvantage for the Patriots, their shortness and speed allowed them in a few games to squeeze under their opponents and out-hustle them on the court. Varsity Coach Waldman commented, "They played a lot of great games and showed a lot of potential when they wanted to play."

Some promising players for the team, also receiving Patriot of the Month awards, were Debby Garcia and Marianne Fiely. Sophomore Joan Harvey was one of the team's high scorers, and she displayed her ability during all games. Julie Vaughn also helped the team tremendously and therefore, was voted Most Valuable by her teammates.

Even better things are expected from the team next year, as they will be losing only one senior, Janet DiPietro.

JV'S FINISH 15 - 4

1979 was a successful year for the Girls' Junior Varsity Basketball Team. Losing only four games the entire season, they finished with a second place in the Orange League standings.

Coach Koehler remarked, "The girls did an outstanding job this year considering the number of freshman girls on the team." One of their more crucial games was against Esperanza. With one minute left to play in the game, the team was trailing by five points. A free throw, steal for the basket, and a forty foot long shot tied the game; the Patriots went on to win 42-37.

All the team members learned and practiced the skills they needed to be a winning team. At the end of the season, the team chose leading scorer Suzanne Elliott as Most Valuable Player.

TEAMWORK HELPS HOCKEY REACH CIF PLAYOFFS

Again this year, the Lowell Field Hockey Team took a giant step into CIF. This year however, the 1978/79 team had only three returning varsity players. They were Laura May and co-captains Brenda Milburn and Carole Scheel. The rest of the team consisted of eight returning J.V.'s and two first year players.

Ms. Marlene Free and Ms. Dana Davidson, the new field hockey coaches, taught the girls excellent skills which helped them place third in the Orange League. With an overall record of 7-1-4, the Patriots scored a total of 28 goals, 20 of those during league play.

Since three teams were allowed to advance to CIF, Lowell was honored to go as the third team. For the first round of CIF, Lowell traveled to Saddleback. After a 0-0 score at the end of the game, both teams went into an overtime flick off. Lowell broke the tie and went 5-3 winners.

Huntington Beach was Lowell's second opposition. The Patriot's precise teamwork and competence assisted them in holding their defending team scoreless at halftime, but lost two goals in the remaining half.

Players chosen for the Orange League Team were Laura May and Annette Mestaz with Debi Houston receiving honorable mention. Voted by the team for Most Valuable Offense Player was Brenda Milburn and Defense Player, Annette Mestaz.

The Field Hockey Team succeeded in reaching their goal—competing in CIF. This was the third consecutive year Lowell has obtained a CIF position.

SOFTBALL TEAMS SCORE VICTORIES

1979 was a rewarding year for both the Varsity and Junior Varsity softball teams. Many returning players helped to strengthen the teams.

The Varsity team was led by the powerful pitching of Joan Harvey. However, winning took the combined efforts of all the team members since every position was important. Coach John Koehler directed the Varsity team to their top spot in the league standings.

The Junior Varsity team, guided by Coach Sandra Wilson, also placed high in Orange League play. All the players displayed their newly taught skills and strategy with ease.

Although rain postponed many games and delayed several practices, both teams worked hard and long when they were able to play.

TRACK SPRINTS AHEAD

With the new Orange League competition, the Lowell girls' track team had to pick up their pace to remain strong in their standings.

Even though there were fewer field eventers than previous years, the increase in long distance runners helped to strengthen the team's overall scoring. The sprinters maintained their speed and placed high against their rivals.

The Patriots began on a good note winning their pre-season challenger, Sierra. Although the team trailed by a few points during most of the meet, they became victorious winning by a close two points.

As the league season started, Lowell faced the toughest teams in the first two meets. Their determination was hardy, but not enough for them to win.

Coached by sprinter coach, Betty Staley, and long distance coach, Sondra Virden, the girls worked hard during every practice. Their dedication and determination kept them running tough all season.

BADMINTON'S BIRDIES FLY

Badminton was a game of challenges for the 1979 squad. With the return of many players, both the Varsity and Junior Varsity teams progressed successfully to complete their season with a high placing.

Badminton was not an easy sport this year. There were many early morning practices which put the players in top condition.

Rival schools were not the only challenges the teams had to meet. During practices the players had to compete against each other in order to reach their positions on the Varsity and Junior Varsity levels. With the number one position as their prime goal, the players practiced with enthusiasm and perseverance.

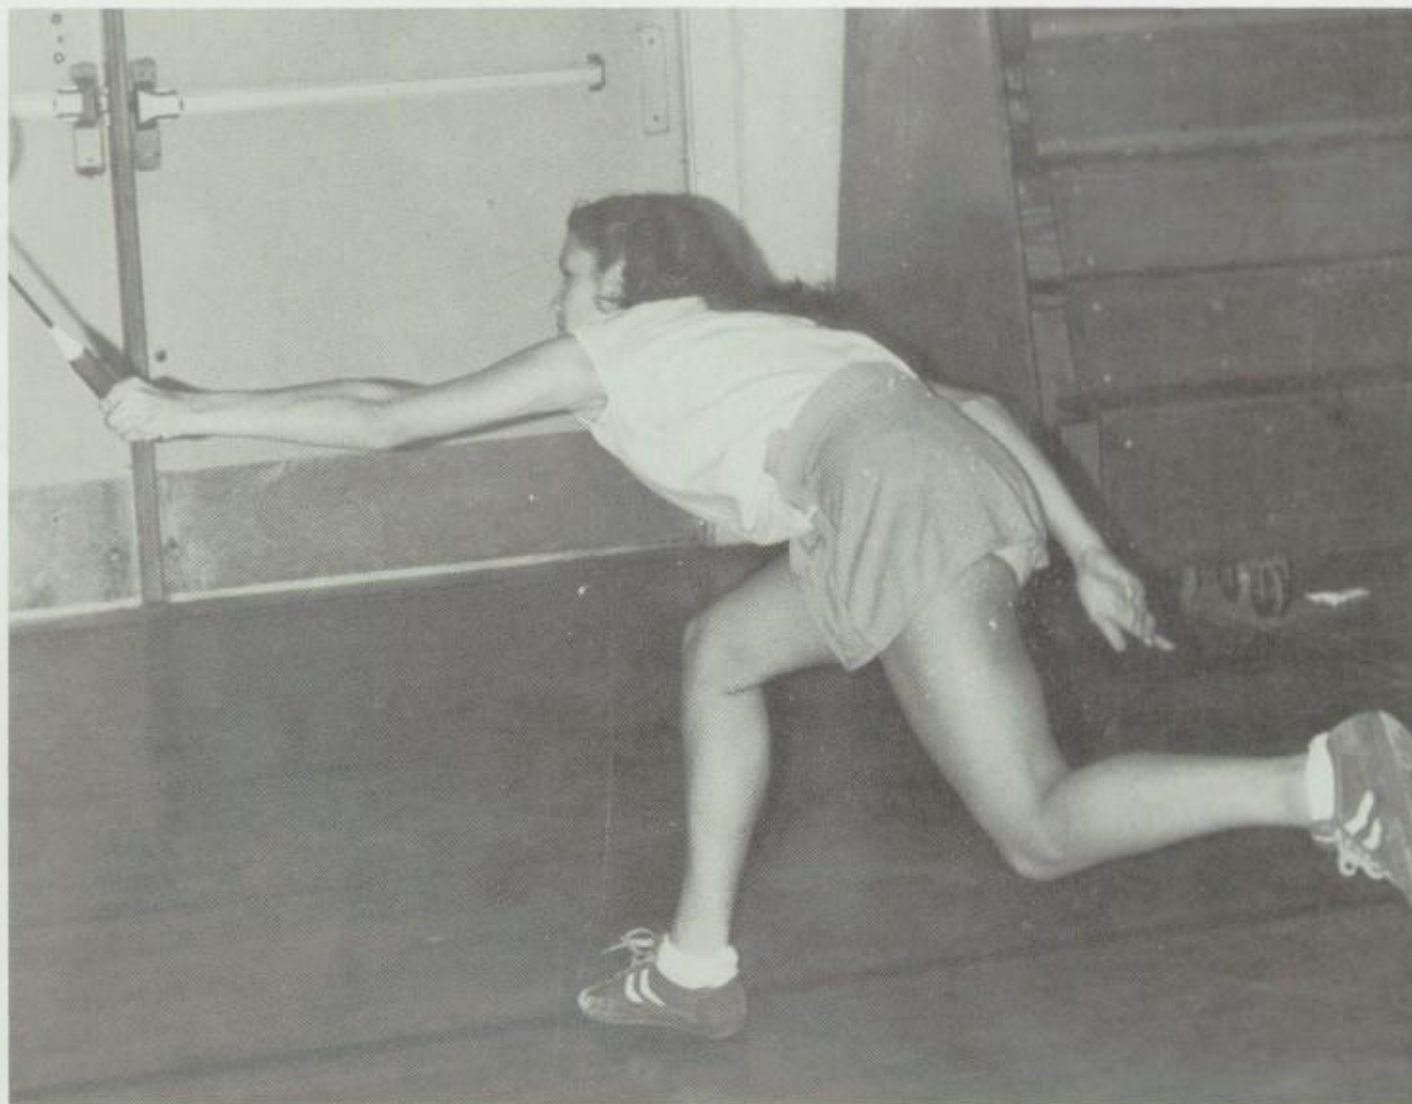

Under the guidance of Coach Janet Greene, the badminton team played tough, winning many matches.

INDIVIDUAL SWIMMERS SPARKLE

Swimming this 1978/79 season was a new experience for many of the team members. With approximately only five returning swimmers, the girls had a difficult time placing very high in the league standings.

The team as a whole was short on swimmers, which also weakened their total scoring. Individually, however, each swimmer did an exceptional job. Many of the girls had to double or triple the number of races they swam for the team to have a sufficient quantity of swimmers in each race. Sally Morris, sole diver, usually lifted the team's score with her first place performances.

Headed by Coach Marlean Free, the Varsity and JV teams exhibited courage and stability throughout the season. Coach Jo Waldman also played a vital role, but because of being hospitalized for several days, was unable to attend many meets.

ATHLETES TRAIN TOWARD GOALS

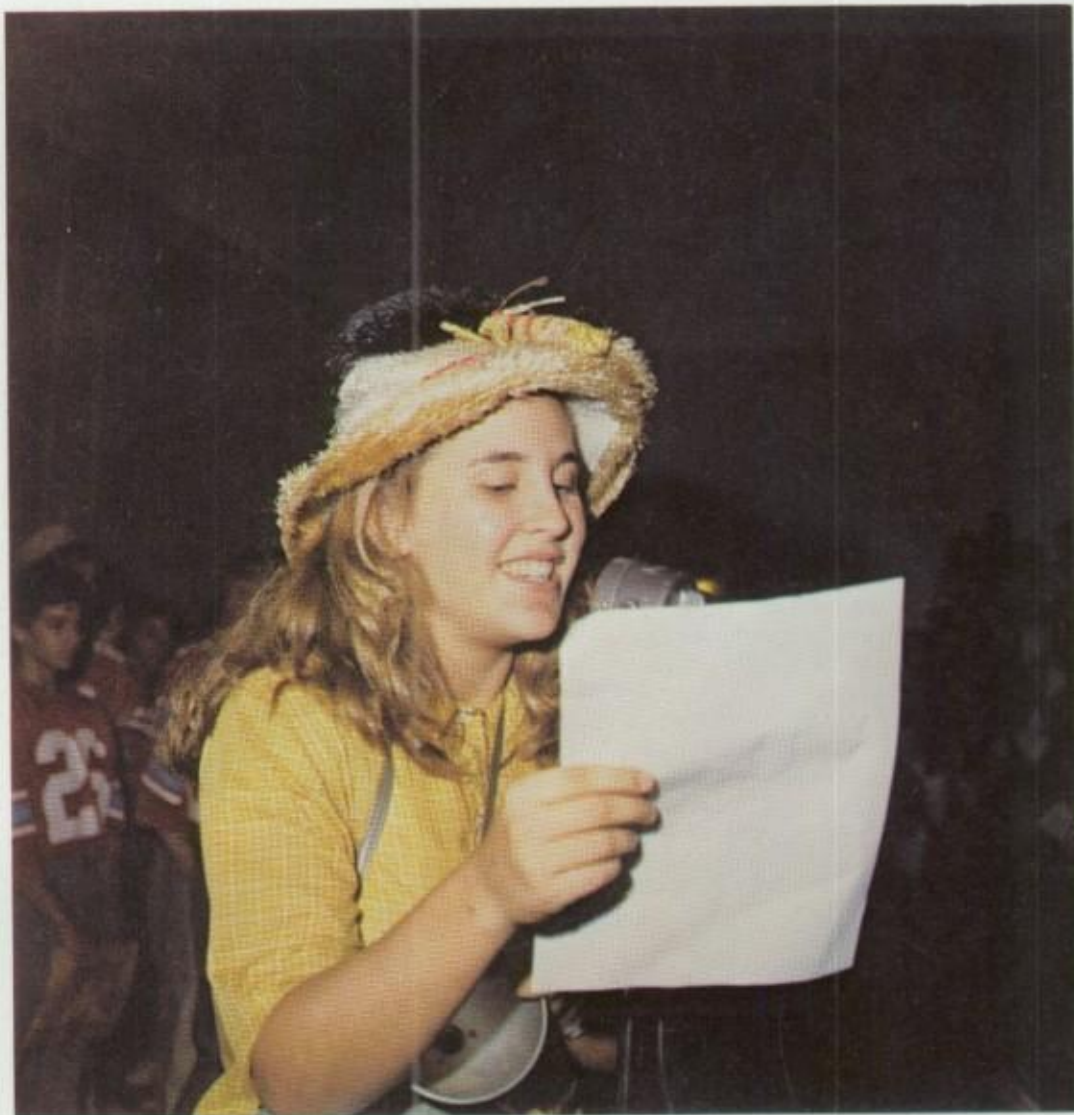

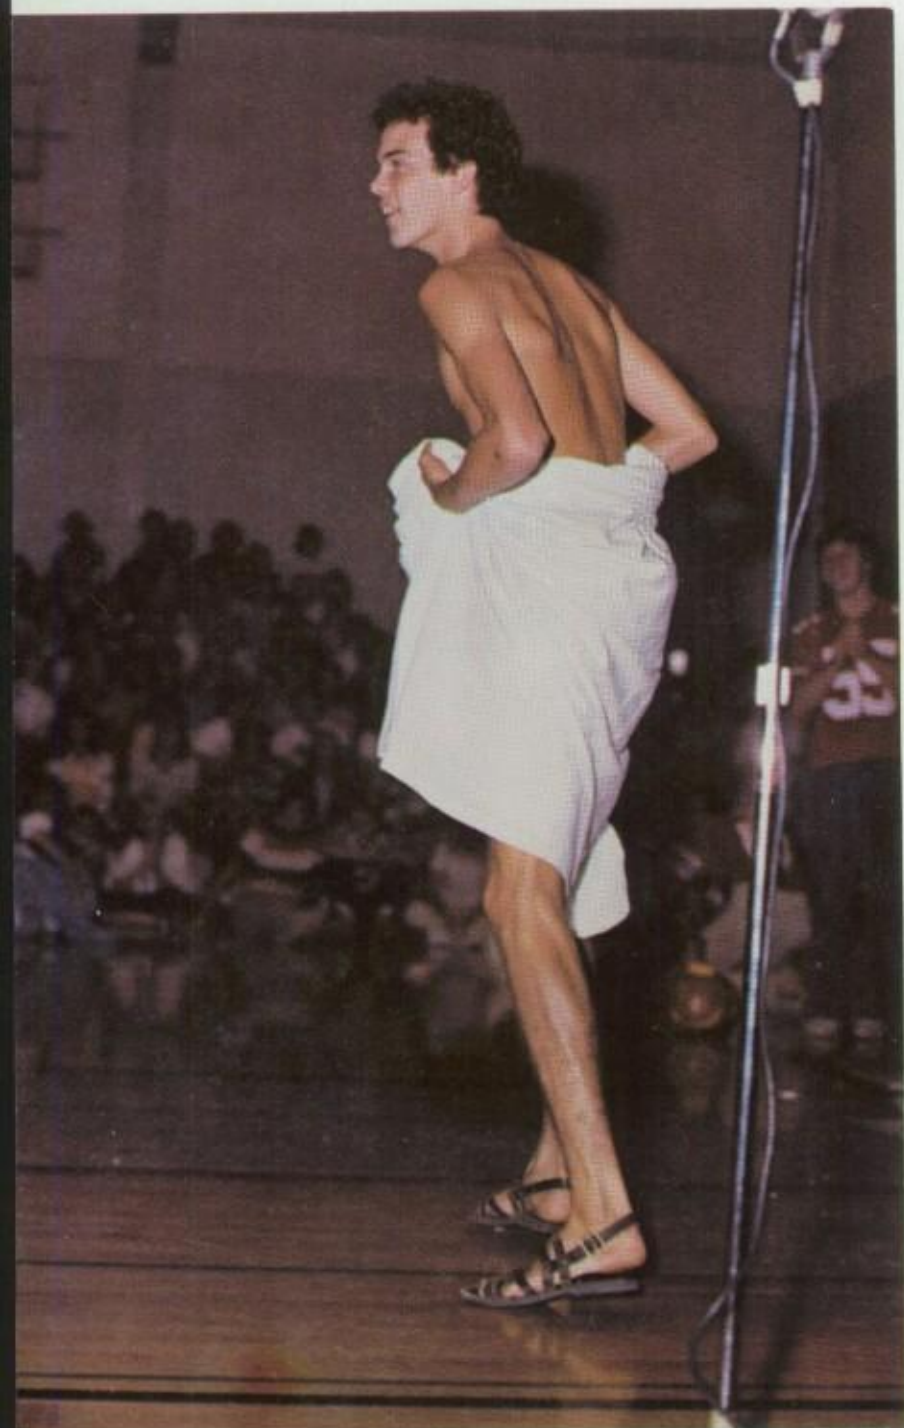

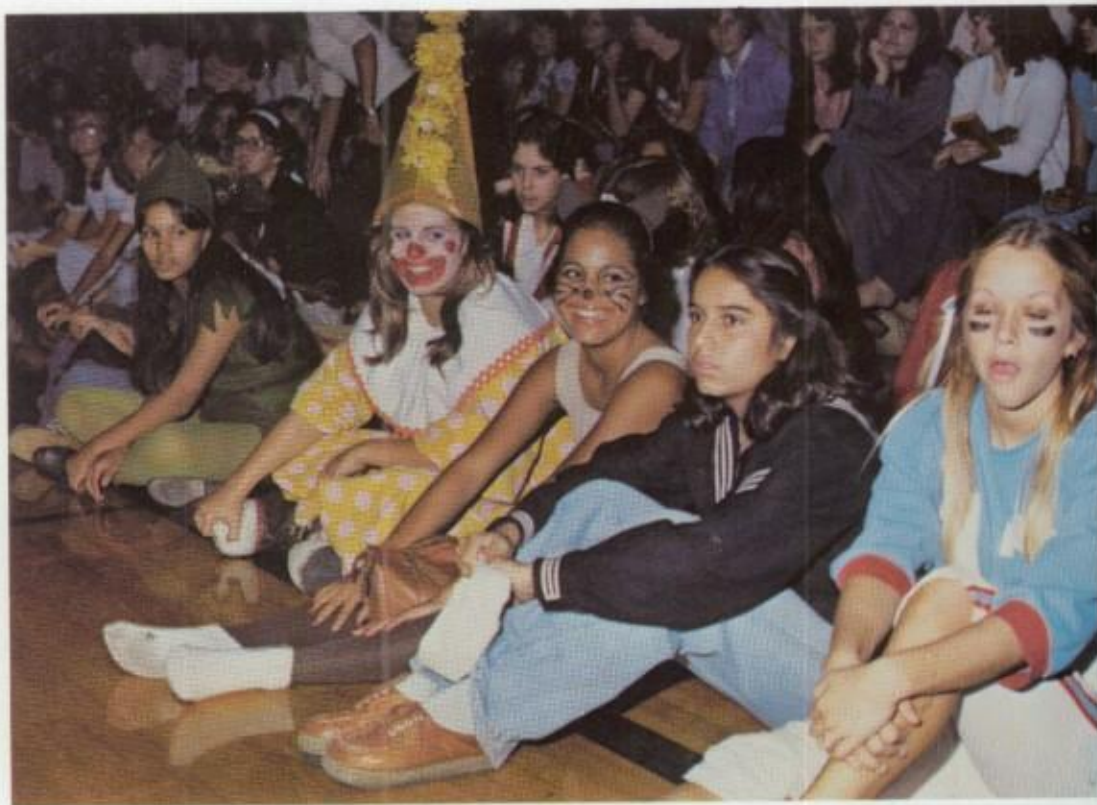

ASSEMBLY STIMULATES EXCITEMENT

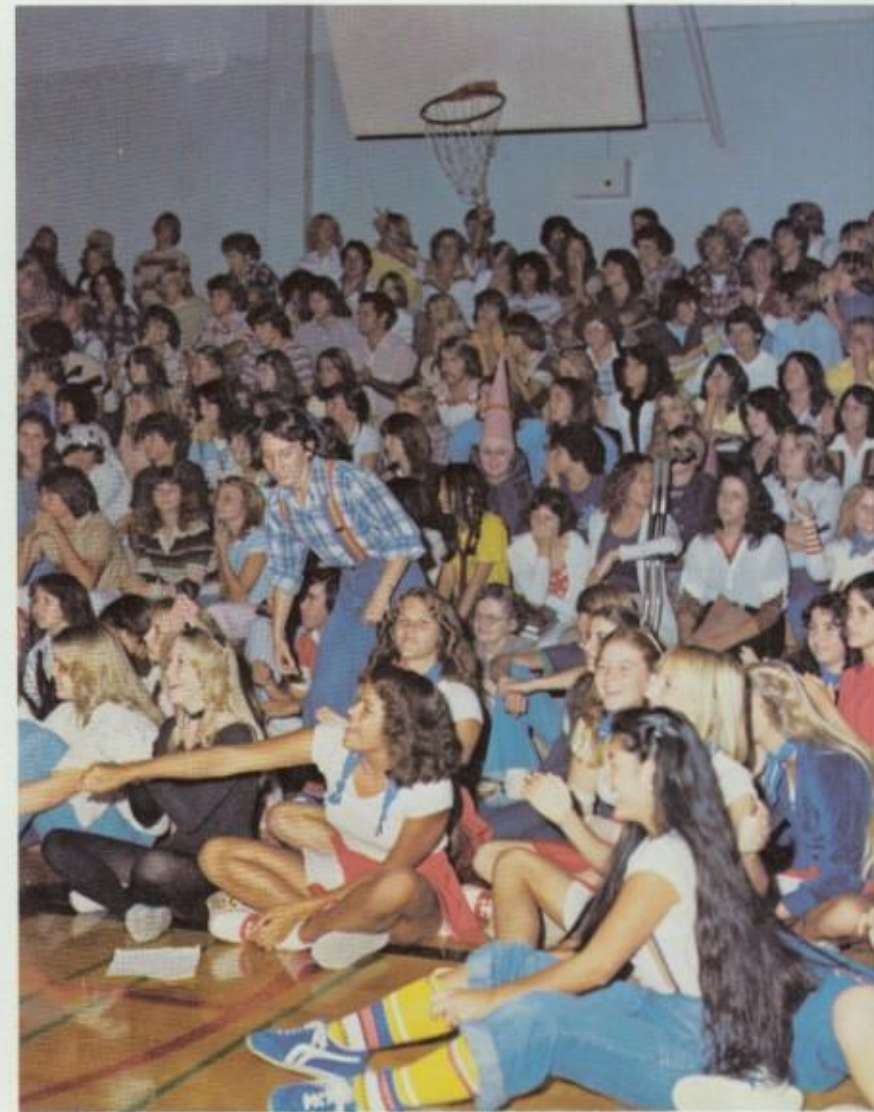

"Visions of Yesterday" was the theme of the 1978 Homecoming Assembly and Dance. As the Assembly began, a mood of suspense and spirit filled the air. Escorted into the gym, the Homecoming Court was introduced, with everyone wondering who would be crowned later that night. A pumpkin carving contest was then held which the Juniors won.

Later in the Assembly the football team was introduced and Coach Rau gave a pep talk that aroused everyone's spirit for the game that night.

Ron Carson, after introducing everyone in togas, did a striptease dance for the school. The cheerleaders then led the competition yell which the Junior class won.

PEP SQUADS GENERATE SPIRIT

After their election at the A.S.B. Convention in January of 1978, the Varsity Yell and Song Squads started their term off cheering at the spring baseball games. When baseball season ended in June, the girls directed their energies toward cheer-leading camp, which they attended in Santa Barbara during July. Countless hours were spent practicing and perfecting those newly learned football routines until school opened in the fall.

Once football and basketball seasons began, the pep squads sold keychains and spirit badges to raise money for cheer-leading projects.

The squads not only attended all boys' sports events during the year but many of the girls' games as well.

CONVENTION SPARKS NEW IDEAS

The 1979 ASB election convention was filled with color and excitement as Lowell's student body chose their officers and pep squads for the 1979-1980 term. Maria Schindelmann did an excellent job of heading and organizing the convention. Many hours were put into the preparations to make it a tremendous success.

State Chairmen, campaign managers, and candidates worked all day before the convention decorating the gym to give it the atmosphere of a real national convention. Many speeches were given, among them one from last year's president, Steve Sciacca.
